Re: Embargo Update – Service Resumption Notice

Dear Valued Stacktrain Customer:

Concerning the Eastbound Embargo issued by Union Pacific on January 11, 2005, effective today Friday, February 4th at 1200 (noon) Central Standard Time, Union Pacific Railroad has cancelled the embargo notice on all intermodal traffic.

Service Resumption From East Los Angeles:

Service will be resumed from East Los Angeles to all destinations effective today at Noon CST.

Service Resumption From City of Industry:

Service will be resumed from City of Industry to Chicago (Global One, local volume for Chicago) on Tuesday, February 8, 2005. Gates at City of Industry will open on Sunday, February 6, 2005 for the Tuesday service.

Union Pacific continues to restore the line between Las Vegas and Los Angeles to full capacity. Please anticipate residual delay as a result of on going track work, congestion and asset imbalances through the next several weeks.

Pacer Stacktrain sincerely appreciates your understanding and patience during this extensive service interruption. We thank you for choosing Pacer Stacktrain.
