Re: CN – POSSIBLE STRIKE

Dear Valued Customer,

The CN railroad received notice that the Teamsters Canada Rail Conference (TCRC) - which represents 1,750 locomotive engineers, plan to strike at 0001 hours Wednesday, May 18, 2005.

CN remains optimistic that it can reach an amicable agreement with the TCRC without labor disruption. If a strike does occur, however, the CN has contingency plans to maintain core freight operations to minimize delays as best possible.

We will provide further notification as soon as more details are known.

We appreciate your continued patience and understanding, and most of all your business.
