Re: 2006 Alameda Corridor Fee Increase

Dear Valued Customer:

In accordance with the Alameda Corridor Transportation Authority (ACTA) agreement and the Pacer Stacktrain Rules and Procedures, an increase of the Alameda Corridor User Fee will be implemented effective January 1, 2006.

The ACTA agreement provides that increases will be effective January 1st, of each year, and will be reflective of the year-over-year (October v. October) change in the Los Angeles County Consumer Price Index (CPI), but not less than 1.5% and not greater than 3.0%. This year the Los Angeles County CPI year over year comparison calls for a 5.40% increase, however, only a 3 % increase was issued due to the maximum 3 % cap.

The 2006 Alameda Corridor User Fees are outlined below. Additional details regarding these Fees may be referenced in the Rules & Procedures section of the Pacer Stacktrain Information Directory which is always available on our website at www.pacerstack.com/services/.
